From the Prophet

By Kahlil Gibran

You would know the secret of death.
But how shall you find it unless you seek it,
in the heart of life?

For life and death are one,
even as the river and the sea are one.

For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind
and to melt into the sun?

And what is it to cease breathing,
but to free the breath from its restless tides,
that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?

Only when you drink from the river of silence,
shall you indeed sing.

And when you have reached the mountain top,
then you shall begin to climb.

And when the earth shall claim your limbs,
then shall you truly dance.
