You would know the secret of death.
But how shall you find it unless you seek it in the heart of life?
The owl whose night-bound eyes are blind unto the day
cannot unveil the mystery of light.
If you would indeed behold the spirit of death,
open your heart wide unto the body of life.
For life and death are one,
even as the river and the sea are one.

Only when you drink from the river of silence
shall you indeed sing.
And when you have reached the mountaintop
Then you shall begin to climb.
And when the earth shall claim your limbs,
then shall you truly dance.
