First Poetry Reading

The Unfinished

Do not judge a biography by its length
Nor by the number of pages in it
Judge it by the richness of its contents.
Sometimes those unfinished are among the most poignant.

Do not judge a song by its duration
Nor by the number of its notes
Judge it by the way it touches and lifts the soul.

Sometimes those unfinished are among the most beautiful
And when something has enriched your life
And when it's melody lingers on in your heart...

Is it unfinished
Or is it endless.

Second Poetry Reading

A Little Breeze

How wonderful was today
To see everyone gathered here
To celebrate my life this way
Remember the good times with cheer.

I've had a wonderful life
I'm sure you'll all agree
I wish you could see me now
I'm at peace and free.

I can go from town to town
From the mountains to the sea
From one planet to the next
The stars, the cloud you'll see.

Next time you feel a little breeze
Talk with me, I'm not far away
I may softly call your name
A little while beside you I'll stay.

I love and cherish you all
And wish you all the best
Enjoy life to the fullest
Hug, laugh and play with zest.
