A Biker's Advice

Life is short. Break the rules.
Forgive quickly, love honestly, laugh easily.
Keep it simple. Ride often, ride FREE and never regret anything that makes you smile

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in Heaven,
Hallowed be thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
On Earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, The power and the glory,
Forever and ever.
Amen.

Reading

Life is not a journey with the sole purpose of arriving safely and pristinely in one piece, but a chance to twist the throttle, leap over, slide under or hammer through obstacles, to look fear in the eye and backhand it in the head,
to skid, slip or stumble across the finish line,
out of gas, leaking oil and blood, covered in dirt and free from regrets.

Successful Person

That person is a success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much;
who has gained the respect of intelligent adults and the love of children;
who has filled his niche and accomplished his task;
who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it;
who leaves the world better than he found it;
who looked for the best in others and gave the best he had.

Irish Blessing

May the road rise to meet you
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face
And the rains fall soft on your fields.
May you be poor in misfortunes, rich in blessings,
Slow to make enemies and quick to make friends,
But be you rich or poor, quick or slow,
May your good memories never come to an end.
