Poem

There Is No Frigate Like A Book - Emily Dickinson

There is no Frigate like a Book
To take us Lands away
Nor any Coursers like a Page
Of prancing Poetry
This Traverse may the poorest take
Without oppress of Toll
How frugal is the Chariot
That bears the Human Soul

A Life In Pictures

Farewell To Stromness - Sir Peter Maxwell Davies

Poem

No Coward Soul Is Mine - Emily Bronte

No coward soul is mine
No trembler in the world's storm-troubled sphere
I see Heaven's glories shine
And Faith shines equal arming me from Fear
O God within my breast, Almighty ever-present Deity Life, that in me hast rest, As I Undying Life, have power in Thee
Vain are the thousand creeds, that move men's hearts, unutterably vain,
Worthless as withered weeds or idlest froth amid the boundless main
To waken doubt in one Holding so fast by thy infinity,
So surely anchored on the steadfast rock of Immortality.
With wide-embracing love Thy spirit animates eternal years
Pervades and broods above, changes, sustains, dissolves, creates and rears
Though earth and moon were gone and suns and universes ceased to be
And Thou wert left alone every Existence would exist in thee
There is not room for Death nor atom that his might could render void
Since thou art Being and Breath and what thou art may never be destroyed.
