

Ed Dillow

August 9th 1931 - August 27th 2018

Train of Life....

At birth, we boarded the train of life and met our parents, and we believed that they would always travel by our side.

However, at some station, our parents would step down from the train, leaving us on life's journey alone. As time goes by, some significant people will board the train: siblings, other children, friends, and even the love of our life.

Many will step down and leave a permanent vacuum. Others will go so unnoticed that we won't realize that they vacated their seats!

This train ride has been a mixture of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, goodbyes, and farewells. A successful journey consists of having a good relationship with all passengers, requiring that we give the best of ourselves.

The mystery that prevails is that we do not know at which station we ourselves will step down. Thus, we must try to travel along the track of life in the best possible way - loving, forgiving, giving and sharing.

When the time comes for us to step down and leave our seat empty - we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who continue to travel on the train of life.

Let's remember to thank our Creator for giving us life to participate in this journey.

Thank you for being one of
Ed Dillow's passengers on his train!

A photograph of a horse, likely a grey or white, wearing a green and white striped shirt. The horse is standing in front of a brick wall. The image is slightly faded and serves as a background for the text.

Entrance Music
The Gambler - Kenny Rogers

Words of Welcome
Christine Capewell

Ed's Story
Read By Sharon Scalzo

A Life in Pictures
When I Get Where I'm Going - Brad Paisley

Words of Farewell
Christine Capewell

Recessional Music
North Melbourne Football Club Theme Song

Ed's family would like to thank you for your love and support and for being here today.

Following the service, they invite you to join them for light refreshments
in the Memories Room.