

Graham Reid

July 2nd 1949 - November 21st 2018

I see the countless Christmas Trees around the world below,
With tiny lights and Heaven's stars reflecting in their glow.
The sight is so spectacular, please wipe away the tears,
For I am spending Christmas time in heaven this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs, that people hold so dear,
But the sounds of music can't compare with the Christmas choir here.
I have no words to tell you, the joy their voices bring.
It is beyond description to hear the angels sing.

I know how much you miss me, I see pain in your heart,
But I am not so far away we really aren't apart.
Be happy for me loved ones, you know I hold you dear.
Be glad I'm spending Christmas in heaven this year.

I send you each a special gift from my heavenly home above,
I send you each a memory, of my undying love.
Please remember love is a gift more precious than the purest gift of gold.
Memories are forever, and these are yours to hold.

Please love and keep each other,
And have a Merry Christmas and wipe away that tear.
Remember that I'm watching over you, even though I can't be near.
Because I am spending Christmas time, in heaven this year.
