Poem

'Ernie's Wish'

Read by - Michelle Hoppe

A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest.
But this I ask, please do not cry, remember me at my best.

I am at peace, my souls at rest, there is no need for tears.
With your love, I was blessed, for all those many years.

In the scent and color of the flowers, look for me and I'll be there.
They gave me such happy hours, you will find me everywhere.

There is no pain, I suffer not, the fear is now gone.
Put now these things out of mind, in your memory I will live on.

Remember not my fight for breath, remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell on my death but celebrate my life.

Take comfort that I know, how much you loved and cared.
Find the joy and happiness, in the many years we shared.

I thank you, my friends and family, for gifting me a life of love.
But now it's time for me to go, to rest with Ma above.
