First Reading

A reading from the book of Job

Bebe Powell

Job said: 'Ah would that these words of mine were written down, inscribed on some monument with iron chisel and engraving tool, cut into the rock for ever. This I know: that my Avenger lives, and he, the Last, will take his stand on earth. After my awaking, he will set me close to him, and from my flesh I shall look on God. He whom I shall see will take my part: these eyes will gaze on him and find him not aloof.'

This is the Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God!

23rd Psalm

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures He give me repose;
beside restful waters He leads me; He refreshes my soul.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths for His name sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for You are at my side with Your rod and You staff that give me courage.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes;
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

Sharna Powell

Hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, which has been given us. We were still helpless when at His appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man –though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die –but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, it is likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we are reconciled to God by death of His Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled, surely we may count on being saved by the life of His Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God!

Gospel

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Blessed are You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; You have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the Kingdom.

Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus exclaimed, "I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do. Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord!

Response: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ!

Prayer after Communion

Final Commendation & Farewell.

With Faith in Jesus Christ, we reverently take Nellie's body to its burial place. Let us pray with confidence to God who gives life to all things that He will raise up this mortal body to the perfection and company of the Saints. May Christ the Good Shepherd lead Nellie safely home to be at peace with God. Saints of God, come to aids,
Come to meet her Angels of the Lord!

All: Receive her soul and present her to God the Most High.

Into Your hands, Father of mercies, we commend our sister Nellie in the sure and certain hope, together with all who have died in Christ, she will rise with him on the last day. We give thanks for the blessings, which You bestowed upon Nellie in this life: they are signs to us of goodness and of our fellowship with the Saints in Christ.

Merciful Lord, turn toward us and listen to our prayers: open the gates of paradise to Your servant and help us who remain to comfort one another with the assurances of Faith. Until we meet again in Christ and with You and our sister forever. Amen.
