Lighting of Memorial Candles

'You're My Best Friend' Foster and Allen

First Reading

'Golden Memories'

There is a picture we tenderly hold,
Deep in our heart a memory is kept,
To love, to cherish, and never forget.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent the voice we long to hear,
In all the world we will not find,
A heart so wonderful and kind.

You left us quietly,
Your thoughts unknown,
But left us memories,
We are proud to own.

Second Reading

'Memories in the Heart'

Feel no guilt in laughter, she knows how much you care
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she's not here to share
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to She'd hope that you can carry on, the way you always do
So, talk about the good times and the ways you showed you cared
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day
That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here
And fills you with the feelings that she is always near
For if you keep those memories, you will never be apart
And she will live forever kept safe within your heart.

Final Reading

'The Perfume Persists' by Dr. Ainsley Meares

The perfume persists when the rose has gone
Ripples still flow when the stone has sunk.
Sounds reverberate from the mountain top.
Love follows the loved one out the door
And remains when she is no longer there.

Recessional Music
