A Limb has fallen from the family Tree

Read by Bart Wadley

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes, we're together again.

Poem

Goodbye Grandpa

Read by Nicole Field

So, heaven has received another angel.
The night sky another star.
Your life has become a loving memory.
We know you will never be far away.

We know you are watching over us
as our life's goes on.
We will treasure the memories we have of you.
We can't believe you're gone.

You were a loving, caring Grandpa
you were there for us a lot.
You will always hold a place in our hearts
a loving treasured spot.

You were really one in a million
a cut above the rest.
All that knew you would agree
you simply were the best.

So, Grandpa we will say goodbye.
We love and miss you with all our heart
but as long as we have our loving memories.
We will never be too far apart.
