When I'm Gone

When I'm gone from this mortal shore
And wander round this land no more
Don't weep, don't sigh, don't grieve or sob,
Maybe I've landed a better job
Don't think to buy me a wreath, instead,
Spend the money on something nice to eat,
And don't stand around me looking blue,
I may be a lot better off than you
Don't tell the folks I was a saint
Or anything you know I ain't
If you have things like that to spread
Please tell it to them before I'm dead
If you have roses, bless your soul,
Then put one in my buttonhole
However.....do it when I'm at my best
Don't wait until I'm safe at rest.

A Limb has Fallen from the Family Tree

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through."

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again."

Gwenda, Christine, Judith, Robyn, together with all of the family, appreciate your love and support at this difficult time.

Thank you for being here with us to say farewell to Ray.
