Collect (Opening Prayer): Fr. Junray

Let us Pray,

Almighty God and Father, it is our certain faith that your Son, who died on the cross, was raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Grant that through this mystery your servant Mark, who has gone to his rest in Christ, may share in the joy of His resurrection.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Read by Bill Tuohey

A Reading from the prophet Isaiah 25:6-9

The Lord God will destroy death forever.

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food. On this mountain He will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples and the shroud enwrapping all nations; He will destroy Death forever. The Lord God will wipe away the tears from every cheek; He will take away from His people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that He has saved us.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 22(23) Read by Heather Purvis

Response: The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where He gives me repose. Near restful waters He leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.

Response: The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me along the right path; He is true to His name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with Your crook and Your staff; with these You give me comfort.

Response: The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head You have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.

Response: The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell forever and ever.

Response: The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading: Read by Jake Engi

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 14:7-12

Alive or dead, we belong to the Lord.

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that He might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. We shall all have to stand before the judgement seat of God; as Scripture says: By my life – it is the Lord who speaks – every knee shall bend before Me, and every tongue shall praise God. It is to God, therefore, that each of us must give an account of himself.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation (all say together)

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Our true home is in Heaven and Jesus Christ, whose return we long for, will come from Heaven to save us.

Alleluia!

Gospel (Matthew 11:25-30) Fr. Junray

Fr. Junray: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your Spirit.

Fr. Junray: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you O Lord.

You are the light of the world.

Jesus said to His disciples: ‘You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.

‘You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in Heaven.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayers of the Faithful:

Introduction: Fr. Junray

We pray to the Lord, may He welcome Mark into His love and peace. May his life be now completed and fulfilled in God's presence forever.

Read by Wil Tuohey

We remember Dad with great love. We thank You for his love and the legacy he leaves in his family and the values that have shaped us.

Lord, hear us.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

FINAL COMMENDATION AND FAREWELL

Invitation to Prayer: Fr. Junray

Before we go our separate ways, let us take leave of our brother Mark. May our farewell express our affection for him, may it ease our sadness and strengthen our hope. One day we shall joyfully greet him again when the love of Christ, which conquers all things, destroys even death itself.

Song of Farewell:

Fr. Junray: Saints of God, come to his aid, hasten to meet him,
Angels of the Lord.

All: Receive his soul and present him to God the Most High.

Fr. Junray: May Christ who called you take you to Himself;
May Angels lead you to Abraham's side.

All: Receive his soul and present him to God the Most High.

Fr. Junray: Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him.

All: Receive his soul and present him to God the Most High.

Prayer of Commendation: Fr. Junray

Into Your hands, Father of Mercies, we commend our brother Mark in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died in Christ, he will rise with Him on the last day. We give You thanks for the blessings, which You bestowed upon Mark in this life: they are signs to us of Your goodness and of our fellowship with the Saints in Christ. Merciful Lord, turn toward us and listen to our prayers: open the gates of Paradise to Your servant and help us who remain to comfort one another with assurances of faith, until we all meet in Christ and are with You and with our brother forever.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Recessional Song: Take Me Home Country Roads (John Denver)

Bill, Maureen,
Prue, Braden, Wil,
Fiona and Kerryn
together with their families,
would like to thank you for your comfort, support, prayers and flowers, during this difficult and sad time.

At the conclusion of Mass the Funeral cortege will leave for the White Hills Lawn Cemetery.
