Psalm 90:1-6, 10-14

Lord, you have been our dwelling place
in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever you had formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

3 You return man to dust
and say, "Return, O children of man!"

4 For a thousand years in your sight
are but as yesterday when it is past,
or as a watch in the night.

5 You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream,
like grass that is renewed in the morning;

6 in the morning it flourishes and is renewed;
in the evening it fades and withers.

10 The years of our life are seventy,
or even by reason of strength eighty;
yet their span is but toil and trouble;
they are soon gone, and we fly away.

11 Who considers the power of your anger,
and your wrath according to the fear of you?

12 So teach us to number our days
that we may get a heart of wisdom.

13 Return, O Lord! How long?
Have pity on your servants!

14 Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

The Lord's My Shepherd (Psalm 23)

1 The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want. He makes me down to lie in pastures green, he leadeth me the quiet waters by.

2 My soul he doth restore again; and me to walk doth make
within the paths of righteousness, ev'n for his own name's sake.

3 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill:
for thou art with me; and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

4 My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes;
my head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

5 Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me:
and in God's house for evermore my dwelling-place shall be.
