First Reading

A Reading from the Second Letter of St. Paul to Timothy (Timothy 4:6-8)

~ Marie McGann ~

As for me, the hour has come for me to be sacrificed; the time is here for me to leave this life. I have done my best in the race, I have run the full distance, and I have kept the faith. And now there is waiting for me the victory prize of being put right with God, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that Day—and not only to me, but to all those who wait with love for him to appear.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

~ Wayne Allan and Caleb Newton-Allan ~

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose.

Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.

Response: The lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness, no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. (Response)

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. (Response)

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's house shall I dwell for ever and ever. (Response)

Second Reading

A Reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans (Romans 14:7-12)

~ Leanne Ryan ~

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. This is also why you should never pass judgement on a brother or treat him with contempt, as some of you have done. We shall all have to stand before the judgement seat of God; as scripture says: By my life - it is the Lord who speaks - every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall praise God. It is to God, therefore, that each of us must give an account of himself. The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them.

Amazing Grace

I Heard Your Voice In the Wind Today
(author unknown)

I heard your voice in the wind today
and I turned to see your face;
the warmth of the wind caressed me
As I stood silently in place.
I felt your touch in the sun today
as its warmth filled the sky;
I closed my eyes for your embrace
and my spirit soared high.
I saw your eyes in the window pane
as I watched the falling rain;
It seemed as each raindrop fell
it quietly said your name.
I held you close in my heart today
it made me feel complete;
You may have died...but you are not gone
you will always be a part of me.
As long as the sun shines...
the wind blows...
the rain falls..
You will live on inside of me forever
for that is all my heart knows.

Tom and his extended family sincerely thank you for attending and providing comfort, prayers and support today.

After the burial at the Milawa Cemetery, they look forward to sharing memories and would extend an invitation to join them for a cuppa at the Milawa Football Ground.

Rest In Peace.
