First Reading

Ecclesiasticus 44:1-15 ~ Adam Tanner

Let us praise the illustrious, our ancestors in their successive generations.
Here is a list of the generous whose good works have not been forgotten.

In their descendents there remains a rich inheritance born of them.

Their descendents stand by their covenants and thanks to them, so do their children's children.

Their offspring will last forever, their glory will not fade.

Their bodies have been buried in peace,
and their names live on for all generations.

The peoples will proclaim their wisdom, the assembly will celebrate their praise.

The word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 23 The Lord is My Shepherd ~ Anna House

Response: The Lord is My Shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters He leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.

Response

He guides me along the right path; He is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness, no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and Your staff; with these You give me comfort.

Response

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.

Response

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's house shall I dwell forever and ever.

Response

Second Reading

Romans 6:3-4, 8-9 ~ Salli Ruiter

Brothers and Sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Happy are those who have died in the Lord:

Let them rest from their labours, for their good deeds go with them. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 13: 34-35, 14: 27-28, 16: 28, 22 ~ Fr Mike Pullar

Jesus said to his disciples, 'I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.

By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.'

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.' 'I came from the Father and have come into the world; again I am leaving the world and am going to the Father. If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I.'

'You are sad now; but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Response: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ

Prayers of the Faithful

Nicole West, Isobel Northey & Chesley Nolan

Lord, we pray for all those who have had privilege of knowing, loving and respecting David. May they be inspired by his generosity and kindness.

Lord hear us.

Response: Lord hear our prayer

We pray for all those who have gone before us. We pray for the family and friends that could not be with us today. Lord hear us.

Response: Lord hear our prayer

We pray for all the friends and families within the local community. Your never-ending generosity is a constant help, and we build strength from your kindness. May you all be blessed by the love of God. Lord hear us.

Response: Lord hear our prayer

Lord we pray for Moopa, who we will forever hold in our hearts. We have truly learnt the value of hard work and perseverance, devotion to family and being a loving husband, father and Moopa. Lord hear us.

Response: Lord hear our prayer

We love you Moopa, we pray that God looks after you in heaven.

We will miss feeding the cows with you. Lord hear us
