*Whatever you are, be that,
Whatever you say, be true,
Be honest in fact,
Be always like that,
Be nobody else, but you.*

- KIDS' STORIES OF NAN -

When I was younger, I had a penchant for cooking (and eating) sweet things. As we all know, another Schultz (ahem..Nan) shared this passion. Everytime we went to visit Nan and Pop, my first stop that night would be to the kitchen, to ask everyone if I could make Nan's famous Golden Syrup Dumplings. No one else wanted to help, but Nan always had time for me. Everytime I would forget the recipe and everytime she would reteach it to me. This was the same no matter what the passion, no matter who was asking, Nan was always happy to share in the joy and knowledge. I will miss her very much, and I will make sure to never forget the recipe again. Love you Nanxxx

When I think back on all the memories I have with Nan, I feel so lucky to have had her in my life. Every moment no matter how small it seemed at the time was so special. It was the little things that I loved so much, like waking up in the morning and sitting down for a bowl of rice bubbles with Nan, or coming back from a swim at the river and seeing her sitting on the deck. The big hug and kiss she would give me every time we arrived in Peechelba, and when it was time to leave she would stand out the front waving us goodbye until we were out of sight. It's these memories that will stay with me forever. I love and miss you Nan. Xxx

The amount of preparation Nan did for our visits truly showed how caring and thoughtful she was. Making sure Nick and I had enough Rice Bubbles and mi goreng noodles to feed a village (which obviously made mum unhappy seeing me eat 3 packets a day) and letting me devour half the cookie jar and all the chocolates in the fridge. I'm going to miss you dearly Nan, Thank you for everything you did for me. Love Harry xxx

Every time we were at Peechelba Nan would greet us at the door. She would ask us what we were up to and how school or sports was treating us, she always took the time to have an interest in how our day was going. I will always remember sitting on the couch waiting for one of us to ask for a chocolate or an ice cream, then rushing to the fridge to be the first there. I am going to miss seeing Nan down at the river during Easter, sitting at the fire chatting with everyone she can.

What I loved about nan was how loving and caring she was to the people around her. As kids we were spoilt out at Peechelba with lollies, money and great times. Some of my best memories were made out there. She loved watching footy whether it was her beloved Bulldogs or the Moyhu Hoppers and she would always make an effort to come watch me play, just knowing she was watching always meant a great deal to me. She will be missed.

My favourite thing about nan was her instant forgiveness, she never got mad at us or yelled at us even when we had broken something. I have fond memories of my brothers sending me out on secret missions to go steal the bags of chocolates nan had stashed in the fridge, I would crawl along the floor like I was a secret agent. Chances are nan had seen me but not ruined my very secret mission. She will be greatly missed, I love you nan.
