Written On The Wind

If I close my eyes,
I can picture you,
I can still recall,
Little things you do,
Time will move along,
We'll be close again,
But my heart has words,
That can't wait till then.
Written on the wind,
Are the words of love,
That I am sending you,
Written on the wind,
Are the special dreams,
That start and end with you.
Though we're far apart,
In my secret heart,
I'm still beside you,
Written on the wind,
Are the words of love,
Sent to guide you.
If you seem to feel,
Something in the air,
It's just me my love,
Telling you I'm there.
